

The Vancouver Island Woodcarvers invite you to

A Two-Day Course with World Class Master Carver

Glenn McMurdo
from Cobourg, Ontario

Paint a Killdeer

Thursday & Friday
April 5 & 6, 2018
8:30 AM – 4:30 PM

$250

Includes a casting of Glenn's 2017 World Masters 2nd place winner, templates and detailed instructions

This seminar will be held in the Red Cedars Room at the Parksville Community & Conference Centre
132 E. Jensen Ave.
Parksville, BC

The course is open to all skill levels.
Glenn will teach both airbrush and hand brushing techniques. Airbrushing is recommended if you wish to complete painting in 2 days; however, you are welcome to take the course and do hand brushing alone.

After registering, you will be sent details and a list of tools & supplies to bring

If airbrushing, you must bring your own airbrush and a small compressor in working order!

To register, send a $50 deposit by March 7th to:

Vancouver Island Woodcarvers Club
c/o Bill Beese 885 Linwood Lane
Nanaimo, BC V9R 6P2

(Cheque payable to VIWC, balance due at the seminar)

Class is limited to 15 students

For more information, contact Bill Beese: 250-802-8075 or bill.beese@gmail.com

Glenn McMurdo is a world-class master carver, author and instructor who teaches carving and painting classes at many venues.
Glenn's carvings have won over 500 international awards including 3rd Best in World Decorative Life-size Waterfowl Pairs in 2015 at the Ward World Championships. He's also written books and articles on carving and painting wildfowl. See more about Glenn and examples of his work at:
www.mcmurdocarvings.com

----- ✂ ----- ✂ -----
GLENN MCMURDO Killdeer Painting Seminar: Detach and mail with a $50 deposit by Mar. 7th

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ Postal Code / Zip _____

Home Phone _____ Cell Phone _____

Email _____ Special Needs or Questions? (add note)